THANK YOU

Dear Friends, Thank you for the precious condolences for our family at the home-going of our Dad, Bob Ault. The music box and blanket were both lovely and our families will enjoy them for years to come.

Bless You,
Brad & Missy Ault

Dear Church Family, I am so blessed to have all the prayers & thoughts from everyone. My surgery was a little more than I expected it to be, but I am getting along really good. I had a herniated disc that hit my spinal cord which caused a sac of fluid on the cord. This is very rare they told me. I went to Ohio State Hospital & had great care. Before the surgery I was in extreme pain & my arm & thumb were numb. After the surgery I am in very little pain now if any. I am still numb. Doctors told me the numbness may stay, but since all my strength has come back, they feel that in time the numbness will go away. He told me it will take a lot of time. Prayers that it does get better. I wanted to thank everyone for all your thoughts & prayers for me during this time. Everything is appreciated. I am getting along very well. Healing more every day. Thank you all.

In Christian Love,
Carol Clutter

“Wireless communication is nothing new.
I’ve been praying for 75 years!”

I remember a hymn from when I was a child, “Sweet Hour of Prayer.” If you’ve grown up in church, you’re probably familiar with it. “Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer, that calls me from a world of care.” All joking aside, wireless communication isn’t anything new. And yet, we often neglect it. I love this quote from Martin Luther, famous leader of the Protestant Reformation in the 1500s, “I have so much to do today that I shall spend the first three hours in prayer.” We often reduce the amount of prayer when life gets busy, not add to it. How about you? How much of your day do you devote to wireless communication with God? I wonder how much more productive we’d be if we followed Luther’s example.
